3 NEW MINISTRIES IN SERBIA -- Glas, No 1430, 29 Jan 50

Belgrade, 28 January -- New Ministries for the Electrical Economy, for State Farms, and for Science and Culture were established recently in Serbia.

The following Cabinet changes have just taken place in the government of Serbia: Zivota Bermanovic was relieved of his duties as Vice Premier and replaced by D. Petrovic-Sane, formerly People's Deputy; Voja Lekovic was relieved of his duties as president of the State Control Commission and appointed Vice-Premier; Ljubinka Milosavljevic /a woman/, formerly a People's Deputy, was recently appointed president of the State Control Commission; Mita Miljkovic was relieved of his duties as Minister of Education and appointed Minister of Science and Culture; Djurica Jokic, formerly a People's Deputy, was appointed Minister of Education; Dragoslav Mutapovic, formerly a minister in the government of Serbia, was appointed Minister of Electrical Economy; and Radisav Nedeljkovic, formerly a minister in the government of Serbia, was appointed Minister of State Farms.

NEW MINISTERS ASSUME OFFICE -- Slovenski Porocevalec, No 17, 20 Jan 50; No 13, 15 Jan 50

Three new ministries have been established recently in Bosnia and Hercegovina, the Ministries of Mining, of Electric Power, and of State Farms. The Ministry of Industry and Mining became the Ministry of Industry. The new ministers have already assumed office.

Upon the suggestion of the President of the People's Republic of Slovenia, the Skupstina instituted two new ministries, the Ministry of Electric Power and the Ministry of Mining.

The new ministries are necessary for the fulfillment of the Five-Year Plan.
